

RULE FOR ANNOYING SMARTY-LOINCLOTHS

Synonyms (big word, Ok to look up in dictionary) are good if you can make sentence where either works.

Example: (Crocodile/Alligator) Guessed
There was _____ in water, so I frightened.
(GOOD. make sense both ways)

Example: (Shark/Fish) Guessed
There was _____ in water, so I frightened.
(BAD, no one afraid of stupid fish)

If word is guessed that contains target word, it good enough.

Example: Word is fire, and guess is campfire. This guess good.

Example: Word is fire, and guess is spaghetti. This guess stupid, no points.
